

NOTICE OF GARNISHMENT AND EXEMPTIONS

IMPORTANT: YOUR MONEY MAY BE TAKEN TO PAY A JUDGMENT. READ THIS CAREFULLY.

A Garnishee Summons against your account(s), wages or other property has been served on the named Garnishee. Money held for you by the named Garnishee may be taken by the Judgment Creditor to pay a judgment against you in this case. However, some money is protected by law ("exempt") and cannot be taken to pay judgments. The following is a list of funds that are exempt. By law, additional exemptions may also be available.

- U. Personal wage exemption because of undue hardship — 31 O.S. §1.1

The above exemptions generally do not apply to judgments and garnishments for Alimony and Child Support.

If you are a corporation, you may have other exemptions.

If an account is being garnished and the money in the account does not belong to you, or if you are aware of other reasons why money should not be taken to pay the judgment, you may want to consult an attorney. Because of the garnishment, the Garnishee was required to withhold the amount of money claimed by the Judgment Creditor. You may not now withdraw that money.

If you believe that you are entitled to an exemption, complete the following steps immediately. You must complete the steps and return the form to the Court Clerk within five (5) days from the date you received this Notice.

1. On the attached "Claim for Exemptions and Request for Hearing" form, check the box next to the exemption or exemptions you claim.
2. Check whether you claim all money is exempt. If you do not claim that all money is exempt, write the amount you believe is exempt.
